

What's Cooking

Senior Barista

Full-time, permanent

What's Cooking is pleased to offer a fantastic opportunity for an experienced coffee professional, who is passionate about speciality coffee and has a natural flair for hospitality.

Excellent rates of pay are on offer for the right person. Benefits include an attractive staff discount, evenings off, training, pension contributions and plenty of scope for progression.

The successful candidate will be joining a small, dedicated team, and will enjoy a varied, flexible role, that will allow them to grow and reach their true potential.

Key responsibilities

- Crafting and serving fantastic coffee to consistently high standards
- Driving standards and developing the coffee offering
- Leading, training and mentoring other baristas
- Looking after customers with attentive service and warm hospitality
- Maximising and initiating opportunities for sales
- Taking orders, serving to table and processing transactions
- Maintenance and care of the coffee equipment
- Health and safety compliance, and general housekeeping

Candidate Specification

- Passionate about speciality coffee, with a natural flair for hospitality
- Warm and friendly, with a proven talent for attentive service
- Self-motivated, pro-active and quality driven
- Positive, professional and a great team player
- Calm, efficient and customer focused
- Has a 'can do' attitude and a strong work ethic
- Sound working knowledge of hygiene, health and safety procedures

If you are serious about coffee and passionate about hospitality, we would love to hear from you!

To apply, please email your CV to Sally Dickinson on sally@whatscookingthame.co.uk